As blocks are released, the kundalini energy rises up the chakra system awakening spiritual and intuitive abilities that set in motion a positive healthy energy field that attracts greater and more loving experiences to the client.

The RoHun™ therapist specializes in perceiving and facilitating the movement, release, and balance of energies in the form of emotional, mental, spiritual and physiological states. The skills of the Ro-Hun therapist draw on the knowledge of consciousness, the chakras, and the invisible subtle energy bodies that surround the physical body. They are etheric surgeons psychically and spiritually trained to remove blocks and access and transform faulty thought patterns that can cause emotional pain, trauma and illness. They are adept at opening the spiritual perception of individuals so they may receive their own guidance, receive strength from higher aspects of their being, and journey with greater awareness. The RoHun™ therapist, above all is a dedicated channel of healing.

RoHun™ Masters I – Course Description

The RoHun™ Masters I Course is a fascinating study consisting of two distinct RoHun™ therapeutic processes in the following areas:

- The Origins Process – When the spirit of man became individualized, the soul and the ego were born, each with a different idea and focus. In the Origins Process one is taken back to the time of individualization, back into the Source, to heal the break with the Divine and the illusion of separation. The Origins Master RoHun™ Process integrates the soul and ego and brings them back together into unity and awareness.
- The Seven Visions of Self in Transformation – The Seven Selves are the archetypal energies residing in our seven major chakras. When we are born we enter into the world of form with deficient human potentials. The goal of the Seven Selves is to guide us in obtaining a collective expression of wholeness. This is the end point of individuation. The Seven Selves in Transformation refine the seven channels of light essential to spiritualizing matter. The Seven Visions Master RoHun™ Therapy provides a rare opportunity to recognize, discover, understand, and enlighten your thoughts and feelings on every dimension of your being. You will learn how to assist yourself and others to know and access the power of the heart, and to systematically create a dynamic synergistic team within to heal yourself and to fulfill your purpose.

RoHun™ Masters II – Course Description

The RoHun™ Masters II Course is an advanced transformational study that will continue to greatly increase your spiritual wisdom, understanding, and practice. RoHun™ Masters II consists of three distinct RoHun™ therapeutic processes in the following areas:

- The Androgynous Process – The Androgynous Process is about healing the layers of internal war between the sexes, the battle of the heart and the mind. The feeling body, the heart is female, and the thinking body, the mind is male. These two are not in harmony, and this conflict is continuously played out in male female relationships. The Androgynous Process works deeply with the kundalini to heal the drama and feeling of war between the male/female, which can only be healed from within. The therapy integrates the heart and the mind so that conflicts are healed, thought and feeling work together in harmony, and healthier relationships are attracted into one's life.
- The Divine Mother Process – is designed to assist individuals with using the power of their will and their voice (the word) to heal mother-induced spiritual fragmentation, psychological imbalance, and emotional entanglement. Activating the Divine Mother aspects within ourselves gives us access to guidance and the energy needed to complete our creations and give birth to anything we embrace with our hearts.
- Spirit Releasement – The release of negative thought forms, attachments, and entities, including emotional attachments to thoughts and feelings like shame and guilt. Attachments are invited through fear and pain during moments of vulnerability in this or previous lifetimes. Spirit Releasement Therapy takes the client into a higher state of consciousness where, through recognition, processing, and understanding, the attachment can be released and sent into the light.
